As soon as we had a break, we rushed out of the building, made snowballs and then threw them at one another. It was really fun!

That moment was unforgettable because I was able to free myself from the pressure of study and have fun with my friends at the same time. Though it was cold, nothing was more enjoyable than laughing and running on a snowy day!

I agree with him. Because I can get laughter, attention and the kindness of strangers by acting things out. (Because the nonverbal interaction with the strangers will make the trip more enjoyable./Because the real communication between people can't be replaced by translation apps.)
