题目①

Dear Tom,

I'm glad to introduce my ways to deal with the waste. I often cut a waste bottle in half, and then I can get a special container which I can put my pens and other things in. Besides, I also try to make them into art pieces to decorate my room. In these ways, I can not only improve my DIY skills but also help protect the environment. The most important is that I turn these waste things into useful things and give them new lives.

If you have any other good ideas, write to me soon.

Yours,

Li Hua

题目②

Last summer, my classmates and I went to the old people's home to do volunteer work. In the morning, we cleaned their rooms and made dumplings for them. In the afternoon, we taught them how to use smartphones, especially how to buy daily supplies online. I've improved my life skills and got a better understanding of helping others. I do value the experience.
